Required documents to prove eligibility to register and vote in the Out-of-Country Vote for the Iraq Council of Representatives on the 5th, 6th and 7th March 2010!

In order to register and vote in the out of country voting process, Iraqi citizens living abroad must present at least two documents to prove their eligibility:

The eligibility criteria are:

1. Voter identification (identification documents)
2. Born on or before 31/12/1992 (age identification documents)
3. Iraqi nationality (nationality documents)
4. Governorate (governorate identification documents)

Beneath is a list of the official Iraqi and foreign documents that can be used by the voter to prove eligibility.

1st Documents that prove all eligibility criteria but still require a second document.

Iraqi documents:

- Iraqi personal identity card
- Iraqi nationality certificate
- Iraqi passport (Type G)
- Iraqi nationality book 1957

International documents:

- Refugee card issued by the United Nations
- Certificates issued by the Red Cross

2nd Documents that prove certain criteria but that require another document to complete the rest of the eligibility criteria.

Iraqi documents:

- Iraqi passport type (A,S,H,N,M) (proves Identity ,age, nationality)
- Food ration card (proves the governorate)

Foreign documents:

- Residency document abroad (proves identity, age, nationality)
- Personal identification card proves (identity, age)
- Foreign passport proves (identity, age)

Important notes:

1. The food ration card must have priority over any other document to determine the governorate for which the voter will vote.
2. Iraqi official documents always have priority over international documents for identifying the governorate for which the voter will vote..
3. For the purpose of acceptance of the Iraqi passport, it must carry a visa or residence permit issued by the authority of the country where the voter lives.
4. International documents to prove the affiliation of the voter to the governorate are the refugee card issued by the United Nations and Red Cross Certificate if they contain a special field for place of birth. If not, they will not be sufficient to prove a link to a governorate.
5. If the voter cannot prove that he/she is Iraqi or is belonging to a governorate, he/she can provide documents belong to his father exclusively proving that he is Iraqi and is belonging to a governorate.
